COUNTING ON EACH OTHER

There is a book titled From Success to Significance. This title describes the work of the Food Bank of Northern Indiana and so many other committed social service organizations in our region. As we serve those in need each day, we make a significant impact upon their lives. Whether it is innocent, young people or our most vulnerable seniors in our communities, we can help affect the overall health of many. And, our hope is that you join in by taking a moment to reflect on how you can personally help, and to recognize all the wonderful servants who make up those great organizations.

Kurt Meyer
2017 Food Bank Chairman

HUNGRY NEIGHBORS COUNT ON US

There has been much talk about culture in the business and private sectors lately. The funny thing about this phenomenon is the sheer number of definitions, origins and forms of use for this term. Webster's Dictionary connects dozens of words like belief, value, society, intellect and biology to culture. Like we do for many words in our language, we've reshaped it to fit contemporary dialog and life in general. Therefore, culture does a lot of heavy lifting in our everyday lives. Many of these words and phrases build the platform for a civilized and caring community. Surprisingly, the word "tradition" was not listed as a synonym of culture.

I believe tradition, in many ways, is more powerful than culture. As culture seems to change and morph, tradition rarely does. One of the greatest traditions that we as a food bank have recognized is that of families, friends and colleagues getting together during the holidays, vacation days and retreats to volunteer at our facility. Over 10,000 people volunteered 34,000 hours in 2016. That's an increase of 14,000 hours since 2010. Had we paid for these human work hours it would have cost our humble organization over four hundred thousand dollars, which represents nearly one million meals! We love tradition at the food bank!

So, we'd like to officially thank all the families, businesses, retired friends, pantry clients, schools, athletes and academics who sacrifice and helped establish the tradition of serving others when it counts the most. And, we invite you to start a new tradition in your family or business.

HUNGRY FAMILIES COUNT ON US

Mobile Food Pantry Program

Meeting the needs of hungry clients in urban and rural communities, the Food Bank provides food directly in pre-selected locations where people can shop and choose items that best meet their needs.

In 2016, the Food Bank retooled its strategy for holding mobile food pantries to ensure that product distributed at the mobile food pantries was healthy, nutritious and abundant for clients.

The Jordan Automotive Group sponsored Elkhart County mobile Food pantries in 2016.

In addition, the Food Bank began providing Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Outreach at all mobile food pantries.

2016 Mobile Pantry Statistics

County	# of Distributions	Pounds	Households	Individuals
Elkhart	15	94,657	5,468	1,540
Kosciusko	5	20,802	1,560	438
Marshall	5	23,758	1,220	377
Starke	17	79,808	4,212	1,531
LaPorte	18	106,347	6,121	1,879
St. Joseph	9	137,433	8,113	2,033
TOTAL	69	462,805	26,694	7,798

Agency Relations

Together with our network of more than 175 charitable feeding organizations including food pantries, soup kitchens, shelters, rehabilitation centers, youth programs, day cares, and senior citizen programs, who work with us to alleviate hunger throughout northern Indiana. Many of these organizations are staffed entirely by volunteers who truly are unsung heroes.

These organizations with dedicated volunteers and staff spend countless hours fundraising, food raising, shopping, packing, loading, unloading and cooking food as well as assisting clients, while meeting higher and higher standards for food safety and customer service, all while tackling mountains of paperwork.

HUNGRY CHILDREN COUNT ON US

Food 4 Kids Backpack Program

Now in its 10th year, the Food 4 Kids Backpack program meets the needs of hungry children on weekends and holiday breaks during the school year when other feeding programs are not available.

During the 2015-2016 school year, the Food Bank partnered with 40 schools in Elkhart, LaPorte, Marshall, Starke and St. Joseph Counties and served nearly 2,000 students.

The Jordan Automotive Group has been the Food 4 Kids presenting sponsor since 2009.

Diaper Distribution

As a partner of the National Diaper Bank Network, the Food Bank distributed 513,078 diapers through its network of member agencies.

Childcare requires parents to provide a day's supply of diapers. Babies without diapers are turned away from childcare, and parents without access to childcare can't go to work. Access to clean diapers improves the physical, mental and economic well-being of babies and families, creating healthier communities.

HUNGRY SENIORS COUNT ON US

Commodity Supplemental Food Program

Completing the first full year of distribution, the Food Bank served more than 750 unduplicated seniors in 2016.

This program serves adults over 60 who reside in Elkhart, LaPorte and St. Joseph Counties and have an income that is at or less than 130% of the federal poverty level.

Each month, participants receive a box of food items through a partnership with the Indiana Department of Health and the United States Department of Agriculture. Nutrition education is a key component of the program and recipes using the products provided in the monthly food boxes as well as nutrition and food safety tips specifically geared for the senior population.

Agency partners including Salvation Army LaPorte, Salvation Army Michigan City, The Pax Center, The Window, Faith Mission and Real Services play important roles in helping us administer this program.

Senior Nutrition Program

Now in its fourth year, the Senior Nutrition Program distributes a monthly food bag to low income seniors in our six-county service area. Calendar year 2016 began with 688 bags distributed each month in 11 locations and ended with 800 bags distributed each month in 12 locations. A grant from the Gene Glick Foundation enabled us to feed more seniors this year. In 2016, the Food Bank distributed 9,051 bags to seniors in need.

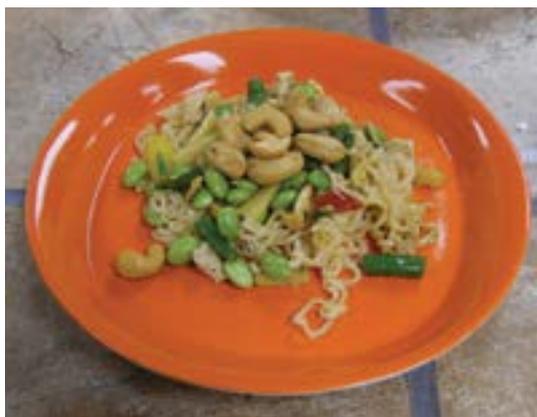

Community Health Program

Healthy Choices Market

The Food Bank launched its Healthy Choices Market with the pledge to educate low income diabetic and high blood pressure patients to learn, choose and live a healthier lifestyle.

The Food Bank partners with St. Joseph Regional Medical Center, Memorial Hospital of South Bend and the American Culinary Federation South Bend Chefs and Cooks Association to provide cooking demonstrations, tips and a healthy shopping experience to live a healthier and more active lifestyle.

The Food Bank conducted 17 Healthy Choices Markets in 2016 – 17 classes including six Spanish-speaking classes with a bi-lingual chef. There were 39 participants with a total of 118 people in their households.

The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP)

Through our partnership with the Indiana State Department of Health and the United States Department of Agriculture, the Food Bank distributed 1,672,620.25 pounds of food through qualified food pantries and soup kitchens this year. This year's distribution included fresh chicken and ground beef, fresh, frozen and canned fruits, juices, vegetables and more with a food bank value of $2,948,780.74.

TEFAP agency partners must meet rigorous standards for client intake, service and record keeping.
